

AS400 PROGRAMMER/ANALYST

Responsible for overall application programming and support utilizing AS400, web development, RPGILE, CL and other tools.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Design and develop applications using RPG, SQL, and other development tools.
- Support intranet/extranet, online ordering, and other HTML interfaces.
- Provide technical support for our internal and external business users.
- Additional duties and responsibilities as requested by the Director of IT.

EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE:

- Bachelor degree in a relevant field of study with applied information technology training and experience.
- 6+ years of programming and development experience with increasing responsibility on the AS400.
- Excellent communication skills with internal and external customers.
- Strong RPG skills including RPGILE and SQL
- HTML required.
- At least one: PHP, Java, C++, or another web programming language required.
- Must be willing to travel-minimal required
- Experience working with large retail customers (Wal-Mart, Best Buy, etc.)
- Excellent personal skills to work with internal and external customers.
- Ability to add elegance to customer faced projects, such as, online ordering.
- Willingness to take on new challenges and opportunities.